Randy Maxwell:

Barnes Dennig is extremely easy to work with, mainly because of accessibility. And it's obviously a sign of the times too, but I have the cell phone number to every single one of the folks I work with at Barnes Dennig. And they just really filled a need that we had at the time. We were with a small local accountant that we just simply outgrew. Six years ago, we transitioned from my father owning the company, and Barnes Dennig helped us through the entire succession planning process. We're doing well, and thanks to Barnes Dennig, they helped us through that process.

The timeliness, not having to wait on things, also, and the things that you expose us to. So new tax law changes or different guidance in certain things that we don't really have to worry about, because we can depend on Barnes Dennig to bring that to us. We take advantage of cost segregation studies, which you guys have introduced us to. We also take advantage of the 179D tax allowances that your team has pointed out to us, and it's been a huge benefit to our organization. I mean, all the folks that we work with at Barnes Dennig are always accessible, any hour of the day, any time of the week, and we just really appreciate that.
