

Barnes Dennig Client Spotlight | Oswald Company | Transcript

Ken Oswald, President & CEO, Oswald Company

Ken Oswald:

If you want a really good firm that genuinely cares about your business and not just cares about collecting a fee from your business, you ought to talk to Barnes Dennig. It's a great firm. It's just good people and they want you to do well and succeed. Jill is our fractional CFO. She's a partner, not an employee. She's a team member. And to me, that's how the personalities of everyone I've ever worked with Barnes Dennig have been like. They've all just been very, very genuine people.

The fractional CFO approach to me has cemented the relationship between Barnes Dennig and Oswald so much more. I've never had an issue with Barnes Dennig on any type of assignment or extra work we had to do. I've always been very fond of Barnes Dennig. To me, it seemed like an extension of our company, almost like a family.
