

Successfully Navigating a Sales Tax Audit | Transcript

Kevin Kaeding:

Well, I think the quality of the work is fantastic. It's not very often that when you go through a sales and use tax audit, especially with challenging states where you end up in a situation where you actually get a refund and that was certainly something that happened to us and they just will listen to you when the business is challenging, which I think is really valuable.